

As an Indiana resident enjoying the peace that our telephone privacy law gives me and my family, I am shocked by the numerous attempts by telemarketing interests to soften our law. I oppose the current attempt by the Consumer Bankers Association to impose the exemption of an "established business relationship" on us. Thank you.